

Flutter key Terms

1- Github:-

A web-based platform for version control and collaboration using git.

2- Dependency:-

A software package or module required by a project to function properly.

3- Gradle:-

A build automation tool used for project dependency management and task execution.

4- API:-

A set of rules enabling software applications to communicate with each other.

5- Local Storage

A web storage feature that allows data to be stored in a user's browser for persistent access.

5- Pubspec.yaml-

A configuration file in Flutter that defines project details, dependencies, assets and fonts.